How Do I Convert An Apple Document To Word

Recruiting for roughly 50 open positions with job advertisements on many different sites I naturally get bombarded with emails many of which I could not open properly.. I have listed a few simple guides to transform your mac documents weather you are using iPages, Office Mac or a text editor these guides should make it easy for you to convert to PC based platforms.. Many candidates would not respond in a timely manner and others would have questions on how to do.. Working as a recruiter I have only had the privilege to work in windows based offices, even though I am a mac user primarily.. Recruiters and HR professionals generally don't have time for this and it is often much easier to skip and go to the next application especially when you still have 1000 e-mails to go through.. Emailing candidates back and forth to tell them to resend the application is not a productive practice.
